Dear Allen,

When I came back today I found the enclosed. I heartily dislike to bother you further with this, in view of the heavy burden upon you of matters of consequence. But only the paragraph I have marked in STAT [redacted] letter is material.

Every good wish.

Yours faithfully,

Arthur Krock

Dear Arthur:

Many thanks for your note of August 3. We know something about this, but I welcome the opportunity to go into it more fully as it seems to have interesting possibilities.

It is much too long since I have seen you both, and if you are going to be here during August, I hope we can get together. At the moment I'm a bachelor as Clover has gone off to London for a few weeks.

Faithfully yours,

(Signed) ALLEN W. DULLES
